Introduction

One of the most exciting things that is happening at this time in the history of our Biblical faith is the restoration of the appointed times of the Lord to all of His people. While diligently observed today by our Jewish brethren in the Synagogue, Christians are now beginning to recognize that they teach us important things regarding our faith, and our relationship with God. The feasts of the Lord are being recognized by Believers all around the world to be commemorations that are to be actively remembered and participated in by all who know Him and who want to emulate Yeshua (Jesus) the Messiah! It has been wonderful and quite encouraging to hear the reports of how people are learning to remember and observe our heritage in the Scriptures of Israel.

To help you and your family, we have compiled some articles how to deal with your participation in the Fall holidays. We have included articles on Yom Teruah or Rosh HaShanah, the Ten Days of Awe, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, the likely prophetic significance of these holidays, and how we can celebrate them today. These articles address the importance of participating in the Fall feasts and how you can properly reflect and commemorate them with your family. What do they teach us every year about our relationship to God, and His plan for the world? We also have a practical guide that includes kosher recipes for these holidays, and an order of service to use with your family. We encourage you to read every chapter, as what we have put together is bound to minister to you on many different levels—even all the way to the final chapter where we discuss what this season means to us!

Our family believes that the restoration of the Fall holidays is a great blessing! We, who are to walk as Messiah Yeshua walked, must reach out to others in love at this time when the Father is restoring the appointed times to His people. Yeshua told us that people would know that we are His disciples by the love that we have for one another (John 13:35). Let us each love our family and friends in such a way concerning these feasts—that they will be drawn to us, and not repelled. Let us be beacons of His light and wisdom (Deuteronomy 4:6), so that they can grasp a hold of their important messages.

Dear friends, it will only be through our unconditional love that others will want to know what we know about walking more like the Messiah. If you are discouraged that you are alone right now, be encouraged that your family and friends will want to know one day why you have become thoroughly Messianic. This Fall Holiday Helper is here to aid you in your reaching out to others. During this special season, let us rejoice in the true understanding that Yeshua not only actively participated in the appointed times of His Father, but that He will indeed fulfill these specific Fall feasts in His Second Coming!

A Summarization of Yom Teruah/Rosh HaShanah Traditions

Margaret McKee Huey and J.K. McKee

Yom Teruah or Rosh HaShanah is the first of the Fall (Autumn) appointed times, and it begins a very serious season of personal reflection and repentance for the individual, leading up to Yom Kippur. It occurs on the first of Tishri on the Hebrew calendar, and along with Yom Kippur, constitutes one of the most sacred times for the Jewish community. The instruction for this day appears twice in the Torah, in Leviticus 23:23-25 and Numbers 29:1-6:

"Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, "In the seventh month on the first of the month you shall have a rest, a reminder by blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. You shall not do any laborious work, but you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD"" (Leviticus 23:23-25, NASU).

"Now in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall also have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work. It will be to you a day for blowing trumpets. You shall offer a burnt offering as a soothing aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, and seven male lambs one year old without defect; also their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram, and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs. Offer one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you, besides the burnt offering of the new moon and its grain offering, and the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD" (Numbers 29:1-6, NASU).

Messianic Fall Holiday Helper

There is a great deal of significance attached to this day in Jewish theology, as it is most often emphasized as a time when God looks down from Heaven and reconsiders where He stands with people. It is a time when we are to rejoice and celebrate, remembering His goodness to us, but also begin a sober examination of our humanity, and consider faults and sins that must be rectified. Deuteronomy 11:12 explains, “the eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning even to the end of the year” (NASU), and this has been interpreted as meaning that at this time of year, when crops are gathered and the final harvest begins to come in, that the Lord considers where He stands with the people. The Talmud explains the severity of this concept in Jewish thought:

“Said R. Kruspedai said R. Yohanan, “Three books are opened [by God] on the New Year: one for the thoroughly wicked, one for the thoroughly righteous, and one for middling [people]. The thoroughly righteous immediately are inscribed and sealed for [continued] life. The thoroughly wicked immediately are inscribed and sealed for death. Middling [people] are left hanging from New Year until the Day of Atonement. If they [are found to have] merit, they are inscribed for life. If they [are found] not [to have] merit, they are inscribed for death” (b.Rosh HaShanah 16b).<sup>1</sup>

Of course, how God exactly considers or reckons our relationship to Him as human beings is something that we cannot fully know. What thoughts like this should convey to us, though, is that we are very mortal, we need to be in awe of God’s holiness, and as the Apostle Paul reminds us, “each one of us will give an account of himself to God” (Romans 14:12, NASU). He further says, “work out your salvation with fear and trembling” (Philippians 2:12, NASU).

The need for us to reflect on ourselves, and maintain an active and vibrant relationship with God, is a key theme of the teachings of Yeshua and the Apostles. While this is to be happening every day of the year through prayer, meditation, and study of the Bible—this is a particular season where we have the opportunity to overhaul where we might stand with our Heavenly Father and with one another. Each year at this time religious Jews are forced to consider where they stand with the Almighty. Even though as Believers we have experienced the salvation available in Yeshua, we still commit sin and we still need a yearly reexamination of where we are in our spiritual walk. This reexamination begins on Yom Teruah/Rosh HaShanah. We get to improve where we are with Him, and remember that He is the One who will provide for us in the coming year. A Talmudic sentiment asserts how “A person's entire allotment [for the year] is determined [by God] between New Year's Day and the Day of Atonement" (b.Beitzah 16a).<sup>2</sup>

The Day of Blowing

The specific command which dominates Yom Teruah is the command to blow the trumpet, or shofar, seen in Leviticus 23:23-24:

"And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the Israelites, saying: 'In the seventh month on the first of the month you shall have a sabbath, a commemoration with horn blast, a sacred convocation'" (Alter).

The term used for "trumpet blasts" (NIV) or "loud blasts" (NJPS) is teruah, meaning "shout or blast of war, alarm, or joy," applied in various contexts, including: "battle-cry of king," "blast for march," and "shout of joy with religious impulse" (BDB).<sup>3</sup> While various emotions are involved in "blowing," or even "blasting out," to the Lord, the idea conveyed is that one is not only to blow the shofar for recognizing His holiness and awesomeness, but also that others can be drawn to Him. As a consequence, Israel as God's people will be shown His mercy and will experience spiritual fulfillment. Leviticus Rabbah 29:4 in the Midrash explains this concept well:

"Do not the nations of the world know how to sound the trumpet? They have numerous horns, sirens and trumpets, and yet it is said: 'Happy is the people that know the sound of the trumpet.' This means that Israel is the people which knows how to win over their Creator with the blasts of the shofar so that He rises from His throne of judgment to His throne of mercy and is filled with compassion for them and turns His quality of judgment into the quality of compassion."<sup>4</sup>

A picture of the types of sounds that are to be blown on the Day of Trumpets is seen in Numbers 10:5-8:

"But when you blow an alarm, the camps that are pitched on the east side shall set out. When you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that are pitched on the south side shall set out; an alarm is to be blown for them to set out. When convening the assembly, however, you shall blow without sounding an alarm. The priestly sons of Aaron, moreover, shall blow the trumpets; and this shall be for you a perpetual statute throughout your generations" (NASU).

There was some debate in post-Temple Judaism as to how these commands were to be followed, and specifically regarding the types of sounds that were to be blown. There was disagreement as to whether the sound of the blast was to be one of wailing or moaning, or one of quick sobs. So, a combination of blasts from the shofar, which depicts the various sounds a crying person would make, were chosen.<sup>5</sup> The three sounds that are made today by the shofar in the synagogue service are tekiah—a long blast, shevarim—a moaning sound, and teruah—a crying sound. The order in which they are blown is

Tekiah, shevarim teruah, tekiah

Tekiah, shevarim, tekiah

Tekiah, teruah, tekiah

This is followed by a long great blast or tekiah gedolah. This series of blowings is usually offered only twice in the traditional Synagogue service, a testament to its great solemnity as a matter of God's gift of mercy.<sup>6</sup> Most Messianic Jewish congregations follow very closely with the custom of blowing the shofar blasts only at these designated times, although it does vary. While in Jewish tradition it is customary to remember the sound of the shofar throughout the year, but not necessarily blow it, many Messianic congregations regularly sound the shofar as a part of their weekly Shabbat service and standard worship throughout the year.

In Jewish thought the sound of the shofar is to be one of awe and reverence, and not always rejoicing. A customary Musaf service, often held late in the afternoon on this day, is conducted so that members of the Jewish community can remember the sobs of their people, with as many as 100 shofar blasts offered.<sup>7</sup> Furthermore, on this holy occasion it is held that blowing the shofar is only intended for the daytime,<sup>8</sup> and will not be blown on the evening following.

The regulations concerning the shofar and its composition are very important for us to note, because of its significance for both members of the Jewish community and for us as Believers. The Mishnah specifies that a shofar can be made from the horns of a sheep, goat, or antelope, but not from a cow because of the incident of the Israelites worshipping the golden calf (m.Rosh HaShanah 3:2-3; also b.Rosh HaShanah 26a; Exodus 32). The ram's horn is preferred, so one can remember the substitution of a ram in place of the sacrifice of Isaac (b.Rosh HaShanah 16a; cf. Genesis 22:13). A curved ram's horn is especially preferred, as it is used to symbolize humanity's required submission to God, bending to His will (b.Rosh HaShanah 26b).

While sounding the shofar is the dominant theme of the Day of Trumpets, some particular reasons are often given in Jewish theology for why it is blown on this day. These reasons bear significance for us as Messianic Believers as well, especially as we understand how the themes of the Tanach are connected to the Apostolic Writings, and most especially the future salvation work of Messiah Yeshua:

- the shofar announces the beginning of a period of repentance
- the shofar reminds Israel of the warnings of the Prophets
- the shofar reminds Israel of the battle alarms that accompanied the fall of the Temple
- the shofar reminds Israel to be in fear of God: "When the shofar is blown in the city, don't the people tremble?" (Amos 3:6, CJB)
- the shofar reminds Israel of the future summoning to the Day of Judgment (Zephaniah 1:16)
- the shofar reminds Israel how its blast will call the scattered remnants of the people to return to the Holy Land in the Messianic Age (Isaiah 27:13).
- the shofar reminds Israel of the future resurrection of the dead.<sup>9</sup>

These are all sobering themes that we need to be reminded of as we contemplate the varied themes present on Rosh HaShanah. Many in the Messianic community connect the theme of blowing the trumpet to the return of Yeshua the Messiah, as seen in some critical passages:

"But immediately after the tribulation of those days THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT, AND THE STARS WILL FALL from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the SON OF MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF THE SKY with power and great glory. And He will send forth His angels with A GREAT TRUMPET AND THEY WILL GATHER TOGETHER His elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other" (Matthew 24:29-31, NASU).<sup>10</sup>
