Dedication

Torah In the Balance is dedicated to my mother, Margaret McKee Huey, who was both the originator of the idea for this book and who has been my inspiration through thick and thin. If it were not for the faithful devotion of my mother to things of the Lord and her prayers for my salvation, I would not know Yeshua as my Savior and the blessings of following God's Torah. My heartfelt regards and thanks go out to my "Moogie" whom I love dearly.

Introduction

If you are a Messianic Believer or are a Christian who is wondering about Messianic belief and practice, you know that Messianics are not the “norm.” You know that Messianics break the proverbial “mold” that exists in much of today’s Christianity. While, like your average evangelical Christians, Messianics believe in Yeshua the Messiah (Jesus Christ),ⁱ and in foundational truths such as salvation by grace through faith and the final authority of Holy Scripture;ⁱⁱ we also believe and practice things that many Christians do not. For example, did Yeshua come to do away with the Law of Moses? Or, did Yeshua come to fulfill the Torah, meaning to live it out perfectly for us so that we might follow His example?

Sadly, many modern Christians believe the former, rather than the latter. Christians rightly believe that the reason the Messiah came was to become the atoning sacrifice for our sins so that we would no longer be “under the Law.” But too many embrace an errant understanding of “under the Law,” because sinners who have rejected the Messiah and have rejected the salvation available in Him are certainly not “under grace.” On the contrary, whether or not they follow the commandments of the Torah, those who do not know the Messiah are “under the Law”; they are condemned by the Torah and will be subject to its punishments. No true Believer who has been born again and blood washed by the Messiah is “under the Law,” or subject to the penalty pronounced in the Torah upon sinners. As Paul so properly wrote to the Galatians, the Messiah came “so that He might redeem those who were under the Law” (Galatians 4:5), standing under the condemnation of the Torah.

But what was the purpose of God giving His people the Law? Surely it was not to condemn them, as condemnation only comes to those who break the Law. In Deuteronomy 7:6 our Heavenly Father says, “For you are a holy people to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for His own possession out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.” What the Hebrew word qodesh or “holy” really means is set-apart. What God wants us for is to be set-apart; He wants us to be different from the world around us. And He indeed tells His people how they can be separated:

“The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways” (Deuteronomy 28:9).

ⁱ Yeshua (ישוע) is the original Hebrew name of Jesus meaning, “He is Salvation” (Matthew 1:21). Jesus is derived from the Greek transliteration of Yeshua, Iēsous (Ἰησοῦς), originally employed by the Greek Septuagint.

ⁱⁱ Consult the Messianic Apologetics Statement of Faith at <messianicapologetics.net/statementoffaith.html>, and be sure to notice how most of its basic tenets fully align with today’s evangelicalism.

Torah In the Balance, Volume I

The Lord plainly tells us that if we want to be a holy and set-apart people, then we will follow His commandments or mitzvot of the Torah.ⁱⁱⁱ This concept was understood by Yeshua, the Apostles, and the First Century assembly of Believers. The Apostle Peter writes, “but like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behavior; because it is written, ‘YOU SHALL BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY’” (1 Peter 1:15-16).^{iv}

We live in a fallen world today which has decided to reject the Torah and reject God’s holy Instruction. Similarly, many have decided to reject the teachings of Messiah Yeshua, which are a reflection of the Torah, and have rejected His salvation. And even more sadly, many Christians claiming to know Him have gone after “another Yeshua” or “another Jesus,” who is incapable of providing salvation because he opposes the Torah—in partial fulfillment of the Messiah’s own prophecy that in the Last Days, “Because lawlessness is increased, most people’s love will grow cold” (Matthew 24:12). Certainly, if we followed and studied the Torah as the Messiah indeed did, then those in the contemporary Christian community today would have no discussion about whether or not homosexuality or premarital sex are sin—because the Torah plainly denounces them as such!

Fortunately, however, many Believers are taking the prophecies of lawlessness very seriously, and are seeking to be, as Yeshua said, “great in the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 5:19). As the world gets worse and worse, many Believers are ceding more control of their lives over to the Lord, and are keeping the Torah as He originally intended it to be: a reflection of His love. They are recognizing the value of not only the Old Testament, but also the rich spiritual and theological heritage that we all have from Judaism.

Holding to the position that the Torah or Law of Moses is still to be followed today is very controversial. Messianic Believers are often criticized and chastised by others because we keep the seventh-day Sabbath or Shabbat, the appointed times of Leviticus 23, and follow the kosher dietary laws. What can happen in many instances is that fierce, vehement debates will ensue among Messianics who are Torah observant and Christians who are anti-law, with faults committed on both sides. While discussion and examination of the Scriptures are good, and should be encouraged, treating others with contempt is in violation of God’s Torah. For the Torah indeed tells us, “You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the sons of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Leviticus 19:18), and Yeshua exemplified this perfectly in His ministry example (cf. Matthew 19:19; Mark 12:31; Luke 10:27).

I personally hate division and in-fighting, but do believe that many of today’s Christians have missed out on much by not considering, or just ignoring, the instruction of God’s Torah. I believe they have missed out on a treasure-trove of great insights into the foundation of our faith, and have misunderstood much of ⁱⁱⁱ Do be aware, right from the beginning of this publication, that most of the commandments in the Torah deal with inter-personal relations, and regulate human ethics and morality. Being “Torah observant” is far, far more than just doing outward things.

^{iv} Cf. Leviticus 11:44, 45; 19:2; 20:7.

the New Testament because they do not have a Torah foundation. It is also sad that I must report that I think that many Christians who do not follow the Torah will indeed be “least in the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 5:19), because they failed to let God have more control over their lives and instead succumbed to the flesh. (Thankfully, only He as Creator knows their final destiny.)

Hopefully we each consciously realize that we are called to emulate the Holy One of Israel, especially as Yeshua will not return until the “restoration of all things” (Acts 3:21) has been accomplished. He will only return until things here on Earth among His people have returned to the way that our Heavenly Father originally intended. We in the Messianic community, often advocate that this means that Believers must return to the eternal truths of God contained in the Torah, that we should live out the Torah via the power of God’s love, and most of all that we must endeavor to live a life like Messiah Yeshua—who upheld the Torah in all of His words, actions, and deeds. It has been declared that the Torah will go forth from Zion, and the nations will welcome God’s Instruction from it (Isaiah 2:2-4; Micah 4:1-3).

Torah In the Balance, Volume I is a desperately needed book for our times. The title sums it up all too well: God’s Torah is in the balance. The Torah is in the balance because its validity is continually attacked by many claiming faith in the Messiah; and the Torah is in the balance because many of those following the Torah, in striving to emulate the Messiah, need to learn how to properly follow and obey it.

It is sad that I must report that there are books, materials, and articles that endorse Torah obedience, but do so in a very, very unfair way.^v These materials criticize, berate, and many times insult Christians, thus casting Messianics in a very bad role. On the other side there are some Messianic publications, materials, and articles that present God’s Torah in an “optional” way for either Jewish or non-Jewish Believers, insomuch that they present disobedience to it as not really being sin, and place no definite requirement before people to change. I think these are positions that we need to avoid.

I recognize that change does not happen instantaneously in the life of a born again Believer, but that a steadily, gradual growth into greater holiness via the power of the Holy Spirit, does need to be encouraged. Torah In the Balance, Volume I discusses many of the “hot” issues of the Torah, but attempts to do so in a very fair, scholastic, and loving way as much as possible. As this book’s author, I have done my best to be respectful to those of you who hold different points of view, and I would expect you to treat me in the same respectful manner. I believe that a life of diligent discipleship in following the Lord awaits each of us! Such a life begins with love for God and neighbor, but by no means ends there.^{vi}

^v These include, but are by no means limited to, pseudo-scholarly publications like Fossilized Customs or Come Out of Her, My People.

^{vi} Please note that this book does not address all of the proof verses commonly used by today’s Christians to say that the Law has been “done away.” Consult the author’s book The New Testament Validates Torah for an extensive discussion of some of these passages.
